Irving Vestapool, III

You speak to your family and friends about how wonderful it will be to take vacations in your new vacation home. Deep down, your real goal is to make money. You really want to rent this place out and maybe sell your share for profit. You don't discuss this goal with others as you may not be conscience of this desire, but it is your real motivator.

Timmy V. Timewaster

You work only when you are forced to do so and want to spend every possible moment at your new vacation home. You're thinking about spending every weekend here if other families don't sign up for the time. Winter, summer, rainy, sunny, does not matter to you. Only spending time inside with your family matters and you plan on doing that every second you can.

Dory Fionna Fish

You live to fish and love sharing your passion with your husband and 3 daughters. You do not swim anywhere where fish might pee but you're happiest with bait in the water. You love fishing from boat, dock or beach and always want to switch locations to where the fish are most active.

Cheryl T. Cook

You love to cook and dream of one day becoming TV superstar, “Chef Cheryl”. While your fat family loves to eat, they don’t love it as much as you love to cook. Nothing pleases you more and you have a secret vision of turning the vacation home into your own private Chef Cheryl Studio.
